Mr & Mrs Bund

Shanghai · China

Playful haute French bistro headed by chef Paul Pairet

When Shanghai-based chef Paul Pairet left the gastronomically inventive Jade on 36 to open Mr & Mrs Bund in partnership with VOL Group in 2009, it looked like a shift back towards the chef's classic French roots. But that didn't take into account Pairet's unique approach to dish creation at this elevated but accessible venture.

In a large, strikingly designed and quietly luxurious space, Mr & Mrs Bund successfully marries a relaxed, bordering-on-casual atmosphere and service style with brilliant twists on bistro dishes: signatures include Meunière Truffle Bread, Boston Lobster in Citrus Jar and Long Short Rib Teriyaki - all executed to Pairet's characteristic perfection, of course.

Billed as a new style of 'Modern Eatery', Mr & Mrs Bund has been a hit with the business and gastronomic elite of China's largest city - and beyond - from its very inception. It also paved the way for restaurants in mainland China on an international scale by making its début in this list's top 100 last year. Despite the opening of its sibling, Ultraviolet, last summer, the output from the kitchen has remained consistently top-notch, while the dining room and bar continue to be thronged on a nightly basis.
