Scent from London

First established in the 1870s on Jermyn Street in London, the quintessentially British perfumery PENHALIGON'S has landed in Malaysia at Isetan Kuala Lumpur in Suria KLCC. The brand's tradition of creative and innovative scents is sure to appeal to the discerning nose, with 34 distinctive fragrances to choose from. To this day, Penhaligon's scents are still made in England using the finest rare ingredients, and bottled in founder William Penhaligon's original clear glass design with a ribbon-wrapped stopper. www.penthaligons.com

Marital Bliss

Newlyweds, there's never been a better time to say yes to a jaunt to AYANA RESORT AND SPA BALI. Following the recent completion of its renovation programme, the resort has launched its Ultimate Honeymoon package, inviting lovebirds to create their own signature perfume at the L'Atelier Parfums et Créations studio, indulge in thalassotherapy and Balinese massage, and feast on a private dinner as the sun sets over the Indian Ocean. For the utmost privacy, slink away to a cliff-edge private villa with your own plunge pool, 24-hour butler service and exclusive treats. www.ayanaresort.com

Garden Oasis

Drawing foodies like bees to honey is POLLEN, an offshoot of Gordon Ramsay protégé Jason Atherton's Pollen Street Social in London. Planted in the Flower Dome of the new Gardens by the Bay, Pollen serves up Mediterranean-inspired modern European cuisine. Try the scallop carpaccio with horseradish snow, and the beautifully marbled Ranger Valley 300-day rib-eye, and save room for sweet treats at the nine-metre-long dessert bar. www.pollen.com.sg

Culinary Theatre

Overwhelming diners' senses is ULTRAVIOLET BY PAUL PAIRET. The concept has been 15 years in the making – a fully immersive dining experience presented through sensory play choreographed by the French chef and his team, as guests dine on the 22-course set menu. The theatrics begin with diners being picked up and driven to an undisclosed location, where the 10-seater restaurant is based. Courses aren't only paired with wine, but also with lights, projections, sounds, music and scents. www.uvbypp.cc

Fabric of Society

Coinciding with Queen Sirikit's 80th birthday is the grand opening of the new QUEEN SIRIKIT MUSEUM OF TEXTILES, located on the grounds of The Grand Palace in Bangkok. One gallery displays Queen Sirikit's designer ensembles, including pieces by Pierre Balmain and Erik Mortensen that use fabrics created by the queen's Support Foundation. Another depicts how her sense of style led her to create a new national dress for women in the 1960s. Two further galleries highlight the establishment of the Support Foundation, and show how the queen helped revive silk production and consumption. www.queensirikitmuseumoftextiles.org
